

Landscape Archaeology and Architecture (LAA) Lecture Series Spring/Summer 2016

LAA as Guest...

at Topoi Building Dahlem

Lectures
18.30–20.00 h

Topoi Building Dahlem
Hittorfstr. 18
14195 Berlin

Organisation

Berlin Graduate School
of Ancient Studies
Doctoral Program
Landscape Archaeology and Architecture (LAA)

Contact

Fabian Becker
fabian.becker@fu-berlin.de Moritz Nykamp
m.nykamp@fu-berlin.de
Sarah Ißelhorst
sarah.isselhorst@fu-berlin.de

www.topoi.org/event/34082/

Thursday
May 26

Moritz Nykamp (BerGSAS Berlin)
Landscape Development and Human-Environment Interactions in the Environs of the Late Bronze Age Enclosure
Cornesti-Iarcuri, Western
Romania

Timea Kiss (Szeged)
Fluvial Development of a Floodplain-Alluvial System in the Great Hungarian Plain.
Is the Present River-Network
Representative to Archaeological Periods?

Monday
June 6

Start 18.15 h

Rebecca Henzel (BerGSAS Berlin)
Sicily – Current State of Research

Jonathan Prag (Oxford)
Sicily in the late Hellenistic Period: Historical Challenges and Epigraphic Perspectives

Thursday
June 9

Will Kennedy (BerGSAS Berlin)
The Hinterland of Petra
(Jordan): A Landscape-
archaeological Approach

Sylvian Fachard (Geneva)
Finding the Borders of Attica.
An Archaeological Approach

Thursday
June 23

Sarah Ißelhorst (BerGSAS Berlin)
Historical Water Management
in Northeastern Andalusia

Jasmin Hettinger (Duisburg-Essen)
An ‚Ecological Turn‘ in Roman Flood Management? Some
Remarks and Observations

Thursday
July 21

Nataliia Chub (BerGSAS Berlin)
Bayesian Modelling –
Solution for Trypillia
Chronology Problems?

Andrew Millard (Durham)
Bayesian Chronology Building:
Principles, Limitations, and the Case of the Trypillian Mega-Sites

Preview ... talk in the coming winter term

Fabian Becker (BerGSAS Berlin)
The Environmental Effect of Roman and Medieval Iron Production on Elba
Island, Tuscany

Marco Benvenuti
Iron Production on Elba Island:
State-Of-The-Art (Archaeology– Archaeometry–Geology)